Workers' Participation in Management

*667. SHRI RAVULA CHANDRA SEKAR REDDY :

SHRI RAMACHANDRA KHUNTIA :

Will the MINISTER of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government intend to bring a legislation for increasing workers' participation in management;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) by when such a legislation is likely to be brought before the Parliament ?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI SAHIB SINGH VERMA) : (a) and (b) The Participation of Workers in Management Bill, 1990 was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on 30-5-1990. The Bill was referred to the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Labour and Welfare, Lok Sabha on 12-7-1994 for examination and report. The Standing Committee submitted its report to the Lok Sabha on 18-12-2001. In the meanwhile the second National Commission on Labour has submitted its report to the Government on 29-6-2002. The Commission has recommended that the time has come for the Government to enact a law to provide for participatory forums at all levels.

(c) A view is yet to be taken in the matter. In such circumstances, it is not possible to precisely indicate any specific time frame.
